

Boulder Worldcup Vienna 28th/29th of May 2010

The Worldcup with the world's best Boulderstars in the climbing gym Vienna

The best boulder athletes gather in Vienna at the end of May: All pros, including Austria's top stars Kilian Fischhuber, David Lama, Anna Stöhr as well as Johanna Ernst fight for the cup!

One year ago, the brandnew Outdoor Boulderwall of the Naturfreunde Kletterhalle Wien had its premiere! Thousands of spectators were with us, as more than 150 of the best boulder athletes from over 24 nations fought for the title!

The winners, men as well as women, came from Russia! Anna Stöhr and Kilian Fischhuber both became 3rd place and made a good result for the Austrian team!

Favourites this year

Everyone who knows those two Austrian boulder pros knows they have just one goal: To win in Vienna! What could be better than winning the only climbing world cup on Austrian terrain!

Kilian Fischhuber commenting the following world cup in Vienna: "The world cup in Vienna unites the complete boulder elite in the capital of Austria. The strong competitors, a well prepared organization and the routine of the route setters exclude all possibilities of doubt, that this year's BWC won't be a great show! Who wasn't there last year, must not miss the chance to come here this year! It will be electrifying!"

Beneath the Austrian Stars there are lots of candidates for this year's title from different strong climbing nations, such as Japan, USA, Russia or France. A high quality Tournament is guaranteed!

Andy Marek, stadium speaker of Austrian Football Club SK Rapid Wien will moderate this year's Boulder Worldcup!

Beneath the Worldcup there are many sideevents as well as workshops for the visitors! Some of the best freestyle Soccer Artists of Austria will hold a workshop on the final day, and show some of their best tricks in the following live show!
